“ I love you baby, I miss you more and more. I have no idea what to do anymore. I miss you so much. I go to the bereavement meetings, but they don't help honey.. It always comes nightfall. And that's when I miss you darling. I do okay during the day, I try to keep busy, planting flowers and working in my yard.....but then night comes and I miss hearing you say , I love you and goodnight. I pray every night God will come and get me.
I have nothing to live for anymore baby. The only happiness I have is that you're not in pain anymore. I wish I were not either. I love you darling.

“ I'm fully convinced now that the pain will never go away, Darling. It's been three months and I miss you more then ever. I can't go forward and I can't go backward. I don't know what to do without you. I miss you so much. I know your in a wonderful place and I'm happy that your not suffering any longer. I wish I could have gone with you and I wouldn't be hurting either. I can't sit in my swing any more at night because I miss your calls to says goodnight and tell me you love me. every night. I ask God why he did this to me and he said it wasn't about me. He said you ask him to send you someone and he sent me. I was sent to help you walk your last mile in on this earth. I fell in love with you.
Thank you honey for loving me and showing me what true love really is. I hope someday the pain of losing you goes away, but if it doesn't, I will always thank you for being in my life and allowing me to know your love. Thank you Darling

“ It's almost been nine weeks darling. I don't miss you any less today then I did on that long ride home that Sunday morning when you left me baby. Now I know how you felt the day you invited me into your life. Thank you for loving me for the time that we had together. You were the most gentle, sweet, loving man and I long for the day when I can say your name with a smile instead of tears. Will that ever be, I wonder. I love you.

I don't know how to start the New Year without you . I pray that I will be able to go on, but I don't see anyway. My life is so empty now.You took my heart with you when you left. People say, to me,Eddie wouldn't want you to be crying for him. I know if the shoe was on the other foot, he'd be crying for me, I know because I once saw how he'd have taken it had I left him. I love you Eddie and I always will.

Ed Brown was our neighbor, and the best neighbor you could want.....a wonderful person, caring, fun. When we first moved next door to him he was hoping we were golfers....but no, we were boaters.....but he put up with us anyway.....He really loved golf.

He loved sharing funny cartoons and emails with us all the time. We were blessed to be good friends with Ed and Fran for many years. When she passed away, we just didn't know how Ed would cope, but he did, only because he has the most loving caring family who helped him through that difficult time. After Fran died, he joined a Senior Citizen group and boy, did he have a great time....he had to fight off all those single ladies who really liked him....but he found a good friend in his gal pal Fran. When she passed away, again we wondered how he would cope. But again, his children were there for him as they always are. He was blessed with a wonderful family..they truly loved him and cared for him. He had a wonderful life and he said he had no regrets....he loved living in Lake Havasu.

We are all going to miss him. His little dog that he loved will really miss him. He took him out almost every morning for a walk, even when he had to ride a little scooter and could not walk...that dog meant so much to him.

May he rest in peace.

Thank you darling for the memories. It hurts so much everyday, but I wouldn't change anything for the world. God sent me to help you walk that final mile here on earth. I'm just grateful He thought me worthy enough to fill the answer to your prayer. Though it was not long enough, it created a lifetime of memories for me. Thank you Darling for showing me the true meaning of love. I miss you so very much. I miss your wink's at me. Your calls all day long and in the evenings, I miss you calling me and saying, " I'm sitting on the side of my bed, I just wanted to call you and say, I love you and goodnight" Every night, I'd close my eyes when I went to bed also and I'd hear your love in my heart.

Some day my crying heart will be stilled too, God promised that there would be no tears in Heaven. If I must endure this hurting, for the privilege of being with you as you went to meet our Lord Jesus, I thank you and Jesus for honoring me with that privilege.

My days are long without you. I know .

I'll love you forever and ever my sweet, precious Eddie
